AN ACT

To repeal section 165.301, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to selection of depositories in metropolitan school districts.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 165.301, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 165.301, to read as follows:

165.301. 1. Subject to the provisions of section 110.030, RSMo, the board of education in each metropolitan district [in each year] every year or more but no more than five years shall advertise for bids from the banking institutions in the city for the deposits of the board of education for the succeeding fiscal year or years, to be secured as provided in sections 110.010 and 110.020, RSMo. The bids shall specify the rate of interest to be allowed to the board on the deposits and the nature of the security offered. The deposits shall be awarded [annually] every year or more but no more than five years to the banking institutions that offer, with the required security, the highest rate of interest therefor. The board may select as many depositories for its deposits as it deems necessary and the board shall cause contracts for the ensuing year or years to be made with the banking institutions receiving award of deposits. The board shall cause all funds received to be paid into the designated depositories, allocating funds to the depositories, if more than one depository has been designated, as the board deems proper.

2. The president of the board, [each year] every year or more but no more than
